Not illustrated. 1813 Excerpt: .you refer, headed no article in his index with tha words de Celebratione missce, excepting that decree, under which you meanly and Ignorantly seek a subterfuge. Were it worth my while proculcare jacentert, I could tell the fastidious retailer of Index knowledge, that every Priest unfurnished with the recommendation of his Ordinary was in the eyes of Dr. Troy both vagus el ignotus, and under the prohibitory decree of the Council of Trent an individuum vagum, which he could not recognize as a proper subject to impart faculties unto. Thus tar Reverend Doctor, you stand before the respectable Prelate in the case of an indifferent Clergyman coming into his archdiocese, and there celebrating the Mass without having produced letters of recommendation from your Ordinary, or made any sort of application for faculties to him, who alone could grant them, and without whose approbation and consent, no...
