Writer David Senton is drawn to this lush, tropical backdrop for a period of rest and recuperation following the death of his father. Yet, what begins as a seemingly quiet stay in paradise becomes a struggle for survival. The ancient spirit that for millennia has used the volcano to destroy the lives of humans has re-awoken, determined to wreak vengeance upon the creatures infesting its territory. The twisted and troubled souls of its former victims also lie in wait for the unwary. As David Senton and his family battle these malicious forces their only allies are a guilt-ridden Catholic priest and the Jigsaw man , the last Caraipe Indian left alive.
