The courses afford to all engaged in public or private music instruction an opportunity to study the subject in its application to public education. It appeals directly to the Music Director, the Principal, the Superintendent and the Grade Teacher, The course of study, while primarily arranged to aid those who are professionally active in Public School work, is no less valuable to the private music teacher. The recent admission of music to the list of credit subjects for College Entrance Examination, and its consequent admission as a Credit Course in the High Schools, finds Superintendents and Principals of High Schools prepared to grant Credit Markings for music study pursued with the private teacher. This action practically makes the private music teacher a factor in Public School work, who...
