Alhamra. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Included. 1st Edition. This book is full of important information for trekkers and tourists alike. Tahir Imran Khan has pinpointed many problems faced by trekkers and tourists. Solution of these problems will boost up tourism in Pakistan. This guide explains all the relevant subjects related to Kaghan Valley and its surroundings. The chapter on environment will help raise awareness among the trekkers, guides, porters and the public in general about the dangers of garbage and pollution on the mountains. The maps and information about the mountains add value to this book. Ashraf Aman First Pakistani to climb K-2 This book has two parts, first: Trekking and second Kaghan Valley. Though subject of this book is Kaghan Valley but a comprehensive detail of trekking, northern areas, famous climbers and some other relevant interesting topics have been included for the interest of readers. Pakistan attracts thousands of tourists every year and most of them come only to visit the northern areas of Pakistan. This region is supposed to be one of the most scenic, rugged and isolated places on earth. Trekking in Pakistan is unique and unforgettable, because, it is here that the world's highest mountains are located and famous mountain ranges, such as the Himalayas, the Karakoram and the Hindu Kush meet. These are the world's youngest mountains, only 55 million years old. In these mountains, Siachen, Batura, Hispar, Biafo and Baltoro, are the largest glaciers outside the polar region. Exploring these areas is an unforgettable experience where we have the world's best venues for trekking. Unfortunately trekking/mountaineering is the least popular sport in Pakistan. Usually foreigners from all parts of the world come and enjoy the matchless beauty of our homeland. Due to insufficient published material or information, most of the local...
