Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Birthday Train is magical and appears to children in need. Those who are invited to ride the Birthday Train are sometimes in search of something and sometimes not. It comes to random wishers and no one knows when it will appear. The train is not solely about the presents, but it is about life lessons and knowing right from wrong. The characters on the train who visit the children each offer a special gift such as perseverance, confidence, compassion, listening skills, powers to believe and insight. Children learn that sometimes things are not what they appear. All of these gifts bring good things, change and better understanding. Katie wants a pony. She has asked for one many times. But she has not behaved well. When her requests were not met she became very angry and she did not care if she hurt anyone's feelings along the way. She did not understand and she would not listen. When the Birthday Train appears to Katie, she meets those aboard the train who help guide her on her journey. Conductors Henry and Jen put her fears at ease. Among the many passengers she meets, Joyful Joy gives her understanding. Itty Bitty Faith inspires her to believe. Miss Roxie shows her good things come to those who are kind and Marta lets her see how her actions cost her a pony. Katie learns many things from those she meets aboard the train and her life is forever changed. In a world today where morals, patience and understanding may sometimes be forgotten, the Birthday Train brings exciting stories to inspire with full color illustrations for children. The Birthday Train Books will follow children and their...
