Excerpt from The Whitefoord Papers: Being the Correspondence and Other Manuscripts of Colonel Charles Whitefoord and Caleb Whitefoord, From 1739 to 1810 Whitefoord, son and apparent heir of John Whitefoord of that ilk, complains in 15 791 that his father, partly on account of the constant and trew service done be him to his Hienes, in furthsetting of his Majesties authoritie at all tymes to his power, sen his Hienes coronatioun, and partly by the persuasion of Margaret Simple, his said father s present wife, and the com plainers step-mother, hes still procurit and socht his wrak and distruction, by putting his step-brother Adam Whitefoord in fie of the haill landis of Quhit furd. Nothing was now wanting to complete Adam s title but the great seal. Such a grant the complainer believes would not have been made if Adam s conditionis and behaviour had been known to the king, his said brother having at all times assisted the king s traitors, even cuming in thair company with displayit baner to bereif his Majestie of his life and crown. No cause, however, was...
