She is innocent and selfless in her pursuit for answers and the truth behind her mysterious white hair. Excerpt: Laila was woken up by the warm arctic sun rays tingling her face. She lied in bed, completely still, for a few seconds before she finally remembered. Today is her twelfth birthday! And she can smell chocolate cake! She ran down the wooden stairs of the little hut to the bottom floor, which was used both as a kitchen and as a living room. The old woman who stood next to the big stove turned towards Laila with a smile. Happy birthday, little bunny, she said. mami, you can really stop calling me little bunny. I m already twelve. The old woman smiled. You will always be my little bunny, little bunny. My treasure. Laila laughed. I know the story, mami. We waited for years...
