Createspace, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This is a story about my father, a tailor who emigrated from Sicily and settled in California. The book is the story of his life before and after he was diagnosed with Alzheimer. Perhaps this is also a story about me. In 1999 I decided to move from Seattle to the Bay Area so I could help assist with his care. During the car trip, memories of my father started to emerge vividly, memories that became strange conversations, where I thought of hearing his voice. Then, near the end of the trip, these insane conversations became almost hallucinations. Once I arrived in California and seeing the state my father was in, made those conversations and hallucinations disappear, to replace them with a nightmare of despair and pain. But then, when my family and I became desperate, something unexpected happened, something strange and beautiful that my scientific training cannot (or wish to) explain.

Simply no phrases to clarify. It is really basic but surprises from the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
