Speedy Publishing LLC, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Playground setting, with swings, slide and other equipment, all sized for animals to play on easily. Linky gets bored with the usual routine and decides to investigate the nearby mini golf course. He is dodging golf balls and climbs into one of the small buildings around the holes. On the mini golf course are windmills, clown face, barn and other fun colorful buildings. The mini golf course is surrounded by a chain link fence, but it is old and one back corner is bent enough to allow a small animal to enter. Plot Summary: Linky Rabbit has played on the playground nearly every day this summer. He is tired of playing with the same old equipment at the playground. He decides to go find out what is happening at the mini golf course nearby. When the golf balls come at him, he dives into one of the buildings to hide. Has he discovered a wonderfully new place to play? What happens when he tries to climb up the windmill? Will the people see him and chase him away? Can he make it back to tell his friends without getting caught by humans? Will his friends decide to join him the next time he goes to the mini golf course?.
