Excerpt from The Wisconsin Archeologist, Vol. 10: The Ancient Copper Workings on Isle Royale; July to October, 1911 The surface has been fairly well explored. The ownership of the land is divided among various individuals and corporations and, as a thorough survey has been made, the allotments sometimes do not exceed forty acres. The general direction Of the island is northeast and south west, but it is the custom of the islanders to speak of the north west shore as the north shore and the southeast coast as the south coast, so these terms will hereafter be used.
