Createspace, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This publication describes the unique logistical aspects associated with multinational operations, including planning, coordination, execution, command and control, and deconfliction of logistic requirements. It provides guidance and principles for the Armed Forces of the United States in conducting logistic activities when operating as part of a multinational force. It describes the nature of logistic support elements such as supply systems, movement control, maintenance, engineering, contracting, logistic information systems, host-nation support, real estate management, security, and health support during the appropriate phases of multinational operations. It outlines the organization, structure, methodology, coordinating responsibilities, and processes; establishes priorities; and institutionalizes the logistic planning function for multinational operations, ranging from major theater war to military operations other than war. It describes the responsibilities, authorities, and organizational structures that may be established to coordinate logistic support during multinational operations. It addresses the logistic support areas that commanders and their staffs should consider during the planning and execution of logistic support activities during multinational operations. This publication has been prepared under the direction of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. It sets forth doctrine to govern the joint activities and performance of the Armed Forces of the United States in joint operations and provides the doctrinal basis for US military involvement in multinational and interagency operations. It provides military guidance for the exercise of authority by combatant commanders and other joint force commanders (JFCs) and prescribes doctrine for joint operations and training. It provides military guidance for use by the Armed Forces in preparing their appropriate plans. It is not the intent of this publication to restrict the authority of the JFC from organizing the force and executing the mission in a manner the JFC deems most...
