Not long ago I questioned several younger contemporaries about common occurrences which included historical and recent news worthy events. It didn t take long to realize, how they lacked the basic information anyone should perhaps have known, when residing in any self-proclaimed free society. To be sure, my peers are unique individuals, well read about current events, favoring fictional literature filled with suspense, adventure, mysteries, super Larutan heroes, endless pages dotted with wonderful romances, and the occasional news report. The idea then occurred to me to write an extended dystopian fictional work, with characters representing several young contemporaries, who live on a distant planet with important day to day issues, similar, but not exactly like ours. The principal character, has been chosen by the elite ruling class, soon to be sent on a exploratory mission to a recently discovered life-sustaining planet, suited for colonization -- a...
