Ben Gothard. Paperback. Condition: New. 28 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. This book is the third of many Project EGG (Entrepreneurs Gathering for Growth) interviews to come. AJ AJ is an entrepreneur, motivational speaker and life coach based out of the UK, and originally from Ghana. He is the founder owner of Arise Organise Inspire. He is a vibrant and dynamic motivational speaker and coach. Augustine was born in the west african continent a country called Ghana. He lived with his mother and sister while his father was outside the country. Augustine was brought up in a home where both parents were very hard working and always strived for a better future for their children. Growing up in Ghana was very challenging for Augustine and his family, his mother used to sell essential things that people need in their everyday life in a grocery shop. Augustine used to help out after school at the shop with his mother, but things were not getting any better for the family. After years of hard times and different financial challenges with the family, he relocated Verona, a city in Europe based in the northern part of Italy in the year 2002- 2003. Augustine was once again reunited with the whole family again. He attended junior and senior High school while there with the family. He also started college in the year 2007-2009 while studying Electrical and Electronics Telecommunications. After graduating from college, his parents decided to help him further his education by sending him to the United Kingdom to continue his education. Augustine left his parents at a very young age to live in a different country in search of an opportunity that will enable him to achieve his dreams. After few years away from family and parents, despite the challenges...
