HERE ON MOON

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 305 pages. HERE ON MOON is about a woman in her mid-30s, with a successful career in a Boston investment firm, a husband, and a bright and witty 14-year-old daughter. Suddenly, unexpectedly, she discovers her husbands infidelity, and is devastated and humiliated by his refusal to be forgiven. In spite of a visit to a marriage counselor he remains adamant, saying that he simply no longer loves his wife, and divorce is the only option. We follow her as she travels through trauma, anger, and grudging acceptance of her new status as a divorcee. Support comes to her from a neighbor, a woman who has been divorced for several years, and from a womens support group that invites her into their circle. There are difficult, emotionally tricky moments: How to deal with the presence of the divorcing husband at her mothers hospital bed . . . how to support her daughters role as a shared child . . . how to endure a book club meeting in which the ex-husbands lover unexpectedly shows up Learning how to deal with being a single mother, how to get over being diminished by her divorce, she gains strength to begin her search for a new life. Well-meaning friends and co-workers introduce her to the appropriate single-again dating rituals. Her neighbor is skilled in the ways of dating and eager to have the new divorcee accompany her to singles bars. A male co-worker engineers a blind date with his good buddy. At the end, a careful new beginning. This is a book about losing and looking for love, about being a single parent, about starting over. It celebrates family and a woman who perseveres with surprising new-found spirit. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR,...
