Issue, Inc., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Every work of art has the ability to take on a life of its own. It is only now that I realize the life force in American Gothic Revisited --it is a collection that honestly describes, in pictures and words, the character and characters of Slab City, often referred to as The last free place in America. The word free is associated with the Slabs because of two facts: there s no rent and there are no laws--except respect you neighbor s territory and clean up after yourselves. That makes for a truly unique America place. Of course freedom is always a challenge. Located 126 below sea level in the Sonoran desert of southeast California, Slab City is off the grid. Plus there are sandstorms, rattlesnakes, tarantulas and earthquakes in clusters. Outside of the sun baked summer months the population swells to over 2,000 people and the Slabs take on the feel of a city. Seasonal Slabbers return every year with appreciation of the life style; Snowbirds arrive escaping the winter climates at home in the northern United State and Can- ada; backpackers and transients jest passin through. as Mr. Natural used to say, stay a week or two; and then you have those on ATVs, day...
