Excerpt: .the benefits to the brick industry through the work of the Building Brick Association of America have been most remarkable and satisfactory. The past year has been the biggest and most successful in the history of that organization, and the recent annual meeting in connection with the various important gatherings in Chicago has also been the biggest and most successful. Reviewing the work of the association for the past year, it is interesting to note that there has been an increase of 30 per cent in its membership. Through its agency 35 million copies of advertising talks regarding the value of brick for building have been distributed to the people of this country and 85,000 pieces of other printed matter through the mails. The office of the association has been in receipt of and answered 5,000 letters from individuals concerning the work of the...
