We are meant to be beautiful roses that grow and bloom under the warmth of God s love. However, many things can come into the garden of our lives and threaten to trample those roses. Some are things we let in, and others we have no control over. The weeds that threaten to choke our growth, the storms that threaten to rip the petals off, and the feet that carelessly trample over us might seem like insurmountable problems to an average gardener. During these trampling times, we must remember that He is the Master Gardener. The Trampled Rose Series features women whose spirits are crushed. Circumstances in each of these women s lives have created an opportunity to feel trampled and withered under the mighty weight of life. Journey through the Bible with the characters from the series as they learn about trusting God, letting go of the past, battling fear and much more.
