Templar's care of her dead sister's child was a labor of love-even though it had meant giving up her successful modeling career. All ever, when the financial strain overgrew her own resources, Templar tried to contact the baby's father. It was a shock to learn that he, too, was dead. It was a greater shock to face Leon Marcose, Keri's uncle, and learned that he was determined to raise the child as his own and marry the mother. How could Templar tell him the truth now?
