iUniverse, United States, 2007. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Fate s Time of Turning follows two individuals of different time periods whose lives come to intertwine through a mystery concealed in an old piano. After the death of his young wife, John Weisman struggles to raise his four-year-old daughter, Melissa, and find new meaning in life. But Melissa s disturbing temperaments are an obvious cry for help-and when the nanny suggests that Melissa explores music, her life begins to regain stability. After months of playing piano, John offers Melissa a piano of her own. But Melissa s attention soon turns to the antique piano which her mother acquired shortly before her death. Unbeknownst to John, he is about to discover a daunting secret entombed within the old instrument. The untold story of the piano s master, Elsa, living in her era of time, struggled to choose courtship over her first love-music. But her own fate went undiscovered until this day. With fragments of the woman s past, John pieces the woman s life together which tells a dramatic story of love that sends him on a timeless search for answers that may hold the key to his future happiness.
