Lonnie Hicks Publishing, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Lonnie Hicks, in a work of historical fiction, gives an alternative version of the birth of good and evil with the release of his new novel, The Gospel According to Lilith: Book One. Hicks adapts his historical fiction novel around God's wife Lilith and her bewitchment by Lucifer, God's most favored angel. A child is conceived of this union. God construes this as betrayal triggering an all-out war in heaven. At the end of the celestial bloodshed, Lucifer, Lilith, and all the angels who sided with them were transmogrified into hideous beasts and banished to the yet volcanically violent Earth. There ensues a titanic struggle between God, Lucifer and Lilith for the souls of human kind. Thus begins an engrossing retelling of creation, from the development of Earth to the evolution of humanity, to Jesus' role on earth--between the values of the old testament God, Lucifer and those of Lilith. In The Gospel According to Lilith, Hicks' mythical exploration of the origins of good and evil will lead readers to discover a fresh, bold, point of view regarding God, the Creation, and even Lucifer. This is the Great Story Never Told where all the dots in the bible are connected, where the back story for some of the most momentous events in human history are revealed. A bold, astounding piece of work.
