European Curitrg fHission. SAMOKOV AND ITS OUT-STATIONS. Mr. House, writing from Samokov, April 30, gives a brief review of the present state of the mission work in connection with that station. The Girls School is moving on prosperously, with apparently more religious interest than during the previous year. Of the Institute the report is not quite so favorable, though a few of the students seem to be growing in Christian character. Mr. House writes: -- With regard to our general station work we can, on the whole, report progress. The Brothers Meetings of the church in Samokov, which occur once a month, and are a sort of experience-meetings open only to church members, have been for the most part very delightful, and have tended to deepen the religious life of those who attend. The meeting which occurred last Friday was of deep interest. During the year 1884 twenty-four new members united with our church here upon confession of their faith; a greater number, I think, than during any previous year. The contributions of the church during 1884 were about two and one-half times as large as during the previous year. This was probably the result of introducing systematic giving by means of the envelope system. In Banya and Kostenetz (Eastern Roumelia) there seems to me to have...
