OPEN UNIVERSITY PRESS, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book is an essential read for those new to the role of becoming a clinical supervisor. It is packed with practical ideas and activities to try out in the supervision situation and underpinned by relevant theory. An obvious strength of the book is the way Paul seems to talk to the new supervisor in an engaging and non patronising way. At last there is acknowledgement of the emotional labour of being engaged in supervisory work offering strategies to look after oneself when acting as a clinical supervisor in practice. John Driscoll, Freelance CPD Consultant Development Coach This is a really good book and I have no hesitation recommending it! It is written in a way that is true to my own experience as an experienced supervisor and will be of use to those taking the first steps, those helping others to do so and more experienced supervisors. Steve Dilworth, Freelance Facilitator The author s personal experience of training and supervising has produced a very practical easy to read book with plenty of opportunity to reflect on your own past experiences whilst learning from those that have gone before. Rachel Condren, Student Nurse, Queens University Belfast, UK This practical book is designed as a toolkit for anyone starting out as a clinical supervisor. The book focuses on developing core skills of supervision, as well as your ability to reflect and improve on those skills. Addressing all aspects of supervision, the book gives you practical frameworks needed to start, maintain and evaluate clinical supervision - from how to start a supervision contract to how to run a session. The book offers: Clear information and guidance on what the supervisor needs to know as they prepare to...
