Conflict Resolution for Creatives Press, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Keep the Drama in Front of the Camera! is the definitive DIY guide to solving problems on set, in the production office, or in the boardroom. For anyone in any aspect of the film and television industry (or wanting to be), this valuable handbook contains step-by-step instructions for resolving creative and other differences effectively. It includes worksheets and other resources to keep your production flowing smoothly. Don't let disagreements kill your show! Mishandled, conflict can easily escalate -- but managed well, it can be a powerful force for creativity. You'll learn concrete, essential conflict resolution skills including: -how to recognize and interpret four warning signs of conflict -how to evaluate a conflict situation to know when to get help -how to interpret feelings, needs and strategies in conflict situations -how to prevent and resolve conflict by applying two Guiding Principles -how to follow a guided, step-by-step path to successful conflict resolution .and much, much more. A very insightful and useful read for anyone working in the entertainment industry, with the added bonus of being able to apply these tools to our everyday lives and relationships. A nuts and bolts book on how to work effectively with others, especially in the creative space. Ken and Helene just might be responsible for saving some film and TV gems from falling victims to crushing conflict. The very thing that makes the entertainment industry so alluring and exciting (the unpredictable nature of things) is exactly why this book is a must read. The easy to grasp concepts regarding conflict resolution are life savers, particularly in an environment where there is no right or wrong and things aren't ever black...
