Ledisi and Gabriels secret marriage is finally out in the open yet instead of a brewing romance the couple seems to be up against all odds. There was once a time where Ledisi couldnt wait to proudly wear her married name as the infamous Mrs. Resendez but now that former lover, Khalil Winston has been released from prison, Ledisi finds herself between a rock and a hard place as shes not so sure if shes fully gotten Khalil out of her system. But Disis not the only one with a facing a decision with the power to send this power couple relationship sailing south. Gabriel is battling not only his fathers infidelities but one of his very own that could very well cost him the only woman hes ever loved. LaResse has put her promiscuous lifestyle to the side and is focused on one main goal; staying alive. Even with his world falling apart before his eyes, Senior still finds a way to lure LaResse in and use her as one of his many muppets. Failing to obey his orders can be deadly for both her and her dearest sisters. LaResse searches high and low for a resolution but comes up empty handed. Feeling trapped and with no way out, she turns to a new love interest for comfort and possible clarity but he offers her much more than a mind blowing deep stroke. With such new discovery, Resse uses the information to her advantage and prays that its enough to do away with Senior for good. Loretha thought her prayers had finally been answered and that she finally had a way to escape Chicago and its sin filled streets...
