The great white north of Alaska is the setting where Steve Kelly a radio talk show host has an encounter of the fourth kind with an alien that proves he is from another world by telling of previous event that has not yet been seen from Earth. Two weeks later when the United States Government witnesses a black hole devouring a star at the exact place and time predicted by the alien they enact a plan to stop the black hole whose destination is Earth. Not wanting to be responsible for creating world chaos the President secretly executes a campaign to discredit Steve while ordering the CIA to simultaneously kidnap 12 of the best scientific minds on our planet. He funds the operation by covertly seducing the Israelis to invade Lebanon to look for Hezbollah terrorists while they cut into a Saudi Arabian oil pipe line that runs from Northern Saudi Arabia through Lebanon into Turkey. Subsequently the Israelis announce that they have struck oil and use the money they save from not buying foreign petroleum to finance the operation. Steve Kelly is forced by the FBI to clear his name putting him on a quest to find the location of the aliens planet which he concluded was not very far from Earth. Along the way he falls in love with Ali Abrams a Jewish Northwestern student interning for her masters degree in astrological science with a Doctor Baron who is the head of the Klondike National Observatory. Together the trio out-wits the government locating the aliens base of operations. The alien whose name is Shem befriends the trio answering the question why would you want to help save our planet and risk exposure Believing he is...
