Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Report of the Fruit Growers Association of Ontario, for the Year 1877: To Which Is Appended the Annual Report of the Entomological Society of the Province of Ontario, for the Year 1877 No arrangements have been made for the distribution of any trees or plants beyond the spring of 1879, hence upon our successors will devolve the burden Of selecting some promising fruits for dissemination in future years, in time to have them propagated in sufficient quantity for that purpose. Of late years the Directors have recognized the principle of giving preference to fruits Of Canadian origin, where their qualities were such as gave promise Of adaptation to our climate, and Of their becoming a valuable addition to our list Of fruits. Our membership at present is smaller than it has been for several years past, being new but a very little over one thousand. The causes of this falling Off have been various. While the hard times has not been without its share in bringing about this diminution, there have been other causes at work, and prominently among them have been disappointment in the trees and plants received through the Association. Some have been disappointed because the articles sent were not of larger size; some because they were not in all respects what they expected 3 and more because what they did get failed to grow. One great cause Of the failure to grow, is to be found in the fact that the trees were Often most sadly abused after they arrived at their place Of destination. No care was taken to preserve them 3 perhaps the person to whom the parcel was addressed,...
