Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the PREFACE. AT Sydney in the spring of 1889 A. D., while I was negotiating a passage to England for my wife and myself via China and Japan, an opportunity unexpectedly offered itself of visiting Java en route to Hong Kong. We did not let the chance slip, and at once, as became globe trotters, searched the booksellers shops for anything which might enable us, on reaching the island, to pose before our fellow-travellers as experts in the matter of Krieses and connoisseurs in coffee. To our disappointment we were unable to find any books of any kind relating to Java, except a record of travel called The Australian abroad, and we had to content ourselves with the determination to make the best use of our eyes and ears while we were in the island, and to pay an early visit to the British Museum after our arrival in England to get at the best books which have been written on this most interesting Dutch possession. From the day when, passing through the straits of Lombok, between the two mighty peaks of Lombok and Bali, we found ourselves within the great volcanic girdle which encircles the Malay Archipelago, until we left Batavia on our way to Singapore, we never ceased to wish that every day which was available might be extended to a month, and that many a friend whom we had left in India could be brought to our side to share in the very thorough enjoyment which our visit to the beautiful region secured for us. The following pages are the outcome of our short sojourn in Java and of the renewal of the pleasures...
