Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is aimed at anyone interested in the European Union and EU law. However it covers the law needed for A level (AQA, OCR, Eduqas and Cambridge International 2017 specifications) and other law courses. Written by an experienced teacher and senior examiner, this book covers the EU institutions, the different types of EU law and the effect of these laws on member states and their citizens. These are all clearly set out with plenty of recent case examples, including several for 2017. Cases have been chosen from across the EU to give a range of examples. There is a separate chapter on the effect of EU law on the UK specifically, and a final chapter with examination guidance, for A level students. The law explained series offers in-depth coverage of individual areas of law. This means you can pick those topics for which you need more guidance. There are lots of examples, diagrams and tasks and a revision and examination chapter for those who need it. Answers to tasks and examination questions are provided at the end of the book. This book can be used as a self-study guide as well as in the classroom. It is written in a lively, clear and accessible way and is designed to help students of all learning styles to understand the subject. Although it covers the AQA and OCR specifications, it is also a useful introduction to the law needed for higher-level courses such as the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives course and various Law degree courses. For those interested in what happens next in the UK there will be an update on Brexit on my website as and when it happens. Other books...
