

The Prophecy Gene

By Stuart D. Schooler

Maven Group Books LLC. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 264 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 5.9in. x 0.8in. They dropped a ladder through the hole to the ground about three meters below and descended. Sarah and Sam climbed in and Michael lowered packs of supplies and sample containers before following. They pulled the ladder down the hole behind them. Sarah and Michael attached reels of heavy nylon fishing line to the backs of their waists like the mythical Theseus who used Ariadne's ball of thread as a crude GPS to find his way out of the maze after he had slain the Minotaur. The line was tethered to the ladder. As they moved into the tunnel ahead, their flashlight beams bounced off the fog and sprayed light everywhere but on the bogged ground below. They were eyeless fish, advancing into the net of an unknown and possibly invisible life form. They held onto each other and the walls to keep from losing their footing until they left the cloaking steam of the geothermal mist seeping from the ground. The path turned icy and slippery, and their pace slowed to a shuffle. As the temperature started to rise, the air cleared and they...
