UNCOMMON: PURSUING PURITY BEYOND THE CULTURE (PAPERBACK)

Olive Press Publications, Limited, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . After years of walking with the Lord (and some days of walking away from Him), I have found that the formula for a blessed life is pretty simple: His love + His ways = His promises. Like many, Taia Crews was never looking for the average love story. She wanted to be swept off her feet but she wanted to do it God's way. There's was one small challenge. What did God's way look like in the day she lived in? How can you navigate the culture and keep a standard that is contrary to the culture without jumping from relationship to relationship; leaving pieces of your heart with each one? Taia Crews made a commitment at 16 years old; to learn God's standard and live it. Sexual purity, sexual morality, virginity, second-virginity, born-again virgin, abstinence; celibacy, you name it; it's been questioned, criticized and often labeled as being an unrealistic pursuit in today's culture. Taia Crews has heard, examined, and challenged some of those arguments in her own life and has come to understand and embrace God's desire for a pure life. With insight from her own story, Uncommon details how *Your body is a temple *Your past has purpose *Why pornography and purity don't mix *Marriage is God's idea And more! Whether you are already committed to purity or still deciding if it's for you, we invite you to dive into one story of God's grace through purity. Let's take a look at what it means to be (UN)common.
