It contains the addresses delivered at the One Hundred Fiftieth Anniversary of the founding of the Presbyterian Church in these communities. There also has been gathered for future generations facts relative to the growth of Zion in our midst. The compilers regret that these facts were fragmentary but every known source of information has been explored in order that the history of the churches might be as complete as possible. With the hope that God will bless these churches in future generations as He has in the past years and that its perusal will instill a deeper love for the church of our fathers, we now present it unto you.
