Cletus Stutzman--high school friend, college roommate, co-worker in Christian education, ministry and life time friend--has been a passionate coach and even a more passionate minister of the Word. This book, a pot-pourri of reflections and wisdom will lift your spirits, challenge your life choices and inspire your devotion to God. Vernon Means, Minister/Christian Educator I have known Mr. Stutzman sixty-five years. These short lessons are a reflection of a godly man s life.As you read them, add them to your life. They will help you become a better Christian. Mildred Boyd, School Administrator/Teacher With his warmth, wit, wisdom, and a deep love for God, Cletus Stutzman shares his story of life from a variety of venues. This is not just another story but the intersection of God s story in his life. It is a life lived abundantly. Dr. Joe Roberts, Minister/Christian Educator If you are searching for meaning and purpose in life, the principles set forth in this book by my mentor and friend, Cletus Stutzman, will provide greater spiritual understanding and direction. These short, comprehensive writings are inspirational and uplifting as the author points the way to the heart of God and life lived at its best. Dr. James Moore, President of Christian Home and Bible School.
