Kapil Math, Adinath Book Sales, 2000. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Fourth. 25 cms. 736pp. People gibly speak of Yoga without realising that it forms an integral part of a composite Samkhya-yoga philosophy, the oldest philosophical system in the world. Samkhya provides the theoretical base without which one can neither fathom the terse aphorisms of Patanjali and their masterly interpretations by Vyasa nor derive full benefit through practising them mechanically. In the last two millenniums many learned commentators have elaborated on these texts. Swami Hariharanada Aranya's commentary with further elucidation by his disciple and worthy successor Swami Dharmamegha Aranya is refreshingly different reflect^ging, as it does, their own realisations, which make Samkhya-yoga a living precept today. The book has been hailed a classic since its publication in 1963. It has gained in content and popularity with each new edition. This time additions include, among others, Bhasvati, another unique commentary of the author in Sanskrit on the same ancient texts and its first ever English translation. His thought provoking 'Concept of Isvara in Samkhya Philosophy' is also included. Thus enriched, the book should be valuable to scholars and spiritual seekers.
