

Pieces of the Mind: My Experiences and Memories of Liberia

By Augustus M. Bailey

XLIBRIS. Paperback. Condition: New. 82 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.9in. x 0.3in. AN INTRODUCTION: Like most, if not all historical writers, this book is intended to capture the historical accounts of my own growing up experiences and memories of Liberia and outside of Liberia as well as some of the political eras of my time beginning with the late President, William V. S. Tubman in whose Administration I was born. Additionally, the book will cite investors in the eras under discussion and their contributions to the National Development of Liberia. Let me be quick to point out those elements of the book prior to 1944 and perhaps in the early 1960s were impacted by civicsocial studies teachers in primary and secondary schools as well as my own research effort. Others were by both personal experiences and interviews conducted over the years. Technically, and it is so written in history books, President William R. Tubman was the 19th President of the Republic of Liberia and after him, came President William R. Tolbert, followed by Samuel K. Doe, Charles G. Taylor, and Madame Ellen Johnson-Sirleaf. However, there were Interim and/or Non-Presidential Heads of States all of which will be discussed in my book...

READ ONLINE
[8.69 MB]

Reviews

These sorts of pdf is the greatest publication readily available. It can be rally intriguing throug looking at time. You can expect to like how the blogger publish this book.

-- Prof. Eric Kivalis II

A top quality publication and also the font employed was interesting to learn. It is really simplistic but excitement within the fifty percent from the book. Its been designed in an remarkably basic way in fact it is only following i finished reading this pdf where in fact changed me, modify the way i believe.

-- Rachel Stiedemann