

Tales from the Maryland Terrapins: A Collection of the Greatest Terrapin Stories Ever Told

By Dave Ungrady

Sports Publishing LLC. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 256 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.8in. x 1.0in. In this reissue of Tales from the Maryland Terrapins, fans can relive the most profound memories from more than 100 years of athletics at the University of Maryland in College Park. Authored by David Ungrady, a former two-sport athlete at the school, the book includes a series of first-person anecdotes that reflect the joys and challenges of his athletic career as well as the rich history of collegiate athletics at the school. While it was still the Maryland Agricultural College, the university staged its first intercollegiate athletic competition in 1888, playing baseball games against St. Johns College and the Naval Academy. The first organized competition for football was in 1892. The athletic program began to flourish early in the 1900s. Mens basketball began shortly after the turn of the century, in 1904, and mens lacrosse began in 1910. Womens sports such as basketball, rifling, and soccer started as intramural sports in the 1920s. The womens rifle team won several titles after it was first organized in 1922. By the 1940s, the mens intercollegiate program boasted such national-caliber programs as baseball, boxing, football, lacrosse, track and...
