Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The epic fantasy novel Child of Blackwen is a coming-of-age adventure story about the young dhampir Artemis in the mystical world of Arrygn. Born of a human and a vampire, Artemis was raised among the elves of Ellewynth by her mother's friends Shadow, an elven soldier, and Talisa, a witch. An outcast in elven society, Artemis is protected by the Elders of the Woodland Realm because her mother, the vampire Tamina Ravenwing, once served them. As Artemis struggles to overcome prejudice, she must also learn to control her innate thirst for blood. Her efforts are made all the more difficult when Shadow and Talisa are called to serve in the eight-year-long war against the dragons. Just after they return, Artemis begins dreaming her mother's memories, only to discover that her guardians are plagued with the same dreams. This, along with the mysterious murders in the Woodland Realm, leads Artemis to learn the shocking truth about her mother's death: the unsavory woman in the dreams is none other than Tamina's younger sister, Arlina. Artemis poses a threat to the madwoman Arlina, usurper of the throne of Blackwen City-and the vampire will stop at nothing to eliminate the threat.
