Both girls long for a puppy to love and share. But their apartment block in London's busy West End has a total ban on pets. Just when their dream seems impossible, gorgeous poodle Poppy Paws comes tearing into their lives, bringing big changes with her. With an unexpected move to the countryside it looks like the girls' wishes have just come true. But have they? Everything should be just perfect in their new homes and Poppy has wrapped her perfect paws around the girls' hearts and is part of the Best Friends Forever team. Life is good until bad dog Patch spoils things for Jenna, she becomes afraid of the thing she loves most, dogs! With her friendships with both Amy and Poppy Paws threatened, Jenna desperately needs to overcome all her doubts and fears or risk losing her friends. B.F.F.s are supposed to be forever, or are they?.
