Thorough manual for pdf lovers. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Paperback. Condition: New. 208 pages. Its the 41st Century, Terra has been gone for more than a century, but mankind has already spread across the stars, encountering millions of species, and become masters of space, their military might and superior technology used in the name of peace and universal stability. But now a relatively unknown race has conquered a large sector of Terran space and slaughtered billions of innocent civilians. 4007AD, the insectoid race known as the Jalic have been entrenched in a sector in the Andromeda Galaxy for nearly 200 days, and every attempt to wrest control from them has been rebuffed. The elite Pathfinders are called in with the hope of breaking the deadlock. As the regiment launches for the final battle to decide the fate of the capital planet, Nano Rimmo, they are struck by a vicious ion storm. Within the storm, the Jalics primitive fighter jets reap a bloody toll, and force the regiment back to base. But one of their dropships, the regiments 15th Platoon, is missing, shot down during the battle and left behind. The survivors are led by combat veteran Staff Sergeant Deef Alcott, and they set out for home. But theres a problem: theyre going the wrong way! When they realise, theyre a hundred kilometres behind enemy lines with no way home, except to fight the final battle that the regiment couldnt.
