Ashland Creek Press, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Bird watching (and learning) for children (and adults) of all ages. In Bird Words, young readers will discover birds across three continents plus Antarctica. From eagles and egrets to penguins and plovers, young readers will see birds in their natural habitats, with insights that help readers learn about about species as well as language. Included are 50 full-color photographs. This witty picture book will inspire children to look up, down, and all around to see the birds that inhabit our skies, gardens, and waterways. And the words that illustrate the photographs, while accurately describing bird behaviors, will inspire and delight readers of all ages.
