Excerpt: . . . silent, notwithstanding the burden of proving due care as an affirmative proposition rested on the plaintiff. How did this accident happen No reason is assigned other than from inference. Nobody testifies that the horse went into the hole. The driver is not produced to testify to his manner of driving. For aught that appears, he may not have controlled the horse at all, or tried to do so. We do not know what he did or whether he did anything, --or whether he saw the hole or not. There is evidence in the case that there was the appearance of a horse having fallen in the road just before entering upon the bridge. Two witnesses testify to this, and to finding a small strap in the road at that point, a short time after the accident. The plaintiff says the horse fell upon the bridge....
