Excerpt from Spare Moments With Milton Thus with the year Seasons return, but not to me returns Day, or the sweet approach of evn or mom, Or sight of vernal bloom, or summers rose, Or flocks, or herds, or human face divine; But cloud instead, and ever-during dark Surrounds me; from the cheerful ways of men Cut off, and for the Book of knowledge fair Presented with an universal blank Of Natures works, to me expunged and rased, And Wisdom at one entrance quite shut out. So much the rather thou, celestial Light, Shine inward, and the mind through all her powrs Irradiate, there plant eyes; all mist from thence Purge and disperse that I may see and tell Of things invisible to mortal sight.
