

There Are No Grown-Ups: A Midlife Coming-Of-Age Story (Paperback)

By Pamela Druckerman

Random House Large Print Publishing, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Large type / large print edition. Language: English . Brand New Book. The best-selling author of BRINGING UP BEBE investigates life in her forties, and wonders whether her mind will ever catch up with her face. When Pamela Druckerman turns 40, waiters start calling her Madame, and she detects a new message in mens gazes: I would sleep with her, but only if doing so required no effort whatsoever. Yet forty isn t even technically middle-aged anymore. And there are upsides: After a lifetime of being clueless, Druckerman can finally grasp the subtext of conversations, maintain (somewhat) healthy relationships and spot narcissists before they ruin her life. What are the modern forties? What do we know once we reach them? What makes someone a grown-up anyway? And why didn t anyone warn us that we d get cellulite on our arms? Part frank memoir, part hilarious investigation of daily life, There Are No Grown-Ups diagnoses the in-between decade when. - Everyone you meet looks a little bit familiar. - You re matter-of-fact about chin hair. - You can no longer wear anything ironically. - There s at least one sport you r...
