The Attitude of the Greek Tragedians Toward Art (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By John H Huddilston

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Attitude of the Greek Tragedians Toward Art Were Aischylos, Sophokles, and Euripides influenced by works of art, and, if so, to what extent? This monograph represents an attempt to answer this question so far as it is possible from our present archaeological knowledge. Although the nature of Greek tragedy was such as to practically exclude excursions on, or allusions to, works of art merely for art's sake, there is still a considerable element of this sort which, when studied from the standpoint of the archaeologist, contributes much toward a better understanding of the dramatists. It is not going too far to say that we are able to assign to Euripides at least a wholly unique position among ancient poets. Perhaps no writer except Lucian can lay claim to the appreciative taste for art which the youngest of the three tragedians manifests. Regarding Aischylos and Sophokles, likewise, certain hardly less interesting facts may be observed. The two latter, however, have been included here not so much for what they have to give us in an archaeological way as...
