SPIRITS OF THE OLD WEST: TRUE TALES OF GHOSTLY EXPERIENCES BOOK TWO (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In volume two of the True Tales of Ghostly Experiences series, Kathryn Kaye takes readers deep into the wild, wild west to discover the remarkable history and the incredible accounts of unexplained phenomena in the area. Whether you are a paranormal enthusiast, a history buff or just a fan of the old west, you will love this book. Each section contains true biographical tales of notable historical figures and their ghostly remains. Learn about Doc Holliday, the deadliest dentist of the west. A man who was stricken with disease but who became one of the most ruthless and feared gunfighters in history. His reign of terror included the deaths of many men, a near decapitation and a disemboweling. Today Doc Holliday's ghost has been seen in several states. Is his spirit so restless that he travels around, seeking the quiet solitude that he had come to expect from death? What about the famous lawmen of the west, including Wyatt Earp and his brothers? You will discover the truth surrounding the incredible lives and sacrifices of these brave men. Do their spirits remain present today? Many people believe that Morgan Earp haunts a local store in Tombstone and that Wyatt Earp's wife remains in the wicked and sordid Bird Cage Theatre, along with nearly thirty other known ghosts. What about the infamous robbery turned killing spree of Bisbee, AZ in 1884? This gruesome twist of fate left several innocent people dead and five men were legally hanged in response. A sixth man was hunted down and lynched on the street due to his involvement. Discover the ghostly activity that is attributed to this chain of events. Delve deep into the...
