

The Artist s Life (Paperback)

By John Oliver Hobbes

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Literary World says: . . With much sympathy, insight, and humour she gives a vivid sketch of the spiritual discipline through which the genius of each man had to pass. In the cold print of the book the sparkle and wit are still there. The Queen says: John Oliver Hobbes blends the anecdote and the essay very happily. Her judgments are often as pregnant as they are epigrammatical. The Bookman says: There is much good sense and broad thought in this interesting blend of biography and criticism. The Globe says: The conclusions of Mrs. Craigie are based on just premisses, and they are expressed in a controlled and lucid phrase that it is pleasant to read. The Daily Graphic says: . . has many qualities that go to impart a certain interest to everything she writes. Among them are a fundamental common sense and a gift of epigram. Both of these characteristics are to be met with in The Artist s Life. * The Manchester Guardian says: There is a good deal of intelligent and sympathetic criticism in all of...
