DISCIPLES: FURTHER FRESH ENCOUNTERS WITH FAMILIAR GOSPEL STORIES (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Disciples is the second novel in God's People series, and continues the saga as we hear the stories of the individual disciples when they were called and followed Jesus every day for three years. Often they did not realize what was happening. Sometimes they made mistakes and felt they had failed. They tried so hard to understand who Jesus was and yet it was often beyond them. There were times when they had a glimpse of his identity, but it was difficult for them to accept the truth. They were attracted to him by his personality, his smile, the love in his eyes. They laughed and cried with him. They watched as he touched people's lives - and were moved as he changed their own. So we go with James as he witnessed the raising of Jairus' daughter and experience his wonder at the event, and the bitter-sweet sadness of the witness of the woman who touched Jesus' garment. We sail across the lake with Jude on a clear evening that turns stormy when everyone was in danger of drowning - yet Jesus slept at the bottom of the boat. We climb the mountain with Peter and witness the conversation that Jesus had with Moses and Elijah - and like Peter, perhaps we fail to understand, no matter how hard we try. We question the re-appearance of Jesus in the upper room as we are out with Thomas, gathering supplies. And then, of course, there was Judas. Disciples is a fictional account based on the events that are familiar to all those who read the Gospels. Perhaps the disciples reacted to Jesus in just the same way...
