In the same degree artists have known the necessity of some direct and established method of presenting their works to the public. A gap existed between the artist and the Art buyer until in 1911, when The Artists Guild was organized to bridge it. Briefly stated, the artists idea was to league together in a co-operative body, secure display and sales galleries and offer the best Art works at the same price as the work would command if bought direct from the artist. From the start the plan has been a success....
