A true man or woman will court personal responsibility. He and she know that it is the making of them. It is what will ally them unflinchingly to duty, which keeps one at his post, to die there, if need be. A kindred spirit is necessary in the common walks of life, and it is born of a sense of personal responsibility. Pericles said that he accepted personal responsibility as a duty. When leaving his house to perform a public service, he would say to himself, Remember, Pericles, that thou art going to speak and act for men born in the arms of liberty. civ. perils of success. In the military family of Washington was one, in the early part of the Revolution, whose great ability, courage, and social qualities commanded universal praise. He had no peer in the service of the court and...
