Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Sean Murphy and Martha Benjamin were the ultimate power couple. He was a brilliant engineer and entrepreneur. She was a powerful U.S. Senator. Their daughter, Sarah was a corporate attorney for her father s company. But their son, Terry was given challenges by nature and his birthright that neither of his parents knew how or wanted to handle. So he sought power and recognition at a gaming table. His losses were great and there were those who took advantage of his innocence and his wealth. His father had always covered for him, but Sean Murphy died unexpectedly. With her husband gone, Martha was forced to make some major changes in her family s routine and way of life--changes that trigger great anger in her son. Even more changes were on the horizon when on a bright Saturday morning Martha Benjamin was found dead in her office in her husband s business headquarters. Was she killed? Was it an accidental death or the suicide of someone wanting release from the shambles her family had become? The police must follow all the leads--even those that take them to Washington D.C. or Las Vegas. What does the forensic evidence tell them about what actually happened? It falls on Sarah to continue as the head of the family. She never sought to be anything other than an attorney in her father s business but now she must run the company and be responsible for her brother. Her father s partners add to the chaos when they try and force her to sell the business, hoping she will not enforce the ironclad agreement they had with her father. They want a larger share than the...
