Disaster Risk Reduction: Cases from Urban Africa

By Mark Pelling, Ben Wisner

Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 234 x 156 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Published with ProVention Consortium, UNDP and UN-Habitat This excellent book is essential reading for those concerned with urban risk and its reduction in Africa, the most rapidly urbanizing region of the world. Professor Jo Beall, Development Studies Institute, London School of Economics At last a book that recognizes the impacts of disasters on Africa s 350 million urban dwellers, including the many disasters that get overlooked and go unrecorded. But also a book that, through careful case studies, shows what creates disaster risk and what local measures can be taken to address it. David Satterthwaite, International Institute for Environment and Development (IIED). This innovative volume combines the latest conceptualisations of urban disaster risk and vulnerability with case studies from across the African continent on how existing and innovative information can inform efforts to address the problems. Coverage ranges from the major catastrophes of news headlines to small, everyday disasters with which poor urban residents have to cope in their survival strategies. Written by international authorities and local specialists, this extremely useful book should find a place...
